NIH and its participating Institutes and Centers invite applications for Ruth L. Kirschstein NRSA Short-Term Institutional Research Training Grants from eligible, domestic institutions to develop and/or enhance research training opportunities for predoctoral students interested in careers in biomedical, behavioral, or clinical research. Many NIH Institutes and Centers use this NRSA program exclusively to support intensive, short-term research training experiences for health professional students (medical students, veterinary students, and/or students in other health-professional programs) during the summer. This program is also intended to encourage training of graduate students in the physical or quantitative sciences to pursue research careers by short-term exposure to, and involvement in, the health-related sciences. The training should be of sufficient depth to enable the trainees, upon completion of the program, to have a thorough exposure to the principles underlying the conduct of biomedical research. This Funding Opportunity Announcement does not allow appointed Trainees to lead an independent clinical trial but does allow them to obtain research experience in a clinical trial led by a mentor or co-mentor. This program will use the NIH T35 NRSA Short-Term Research Training award mechanism. For more information, visit https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-18-404.html. GRANT NEWS & UPDATES

• College Closedown info from Dickinson Sponsored Projects Office (SPO)

Expectations for Faculty Principal Investigators (PIs) on Externally Funded Projects (NSF, NIH, NEH, NEA, NASA, etc.)

Active Projects:
If you are the Principal Investigator of a grant and you anticipate that your grant deliverables will be delayed by offsite work, please contact your Program Officer immediately to let them know of your work plan adjustments and CC the Director of Sponsored Projects: peterman@dickinson.edu on the communication. Glen will make sure that Ben Sweger and Steve Moul are aware. Additionally, please prepare a brief explanation of the delay for your next progress report. The explanation should outline the alternative work completed and your plan for accomplishing the original deliverables.

New Projects:
If you are planning to submit a grant, SPO will continue to submit proposals while working remotely. All new grant applications should go through the usual review process including the routing of the Internal Clearance Form. As usual, information useful to submitting a proposal is available on our website: https://www.dickinson.edu/info/20276/corporate_foundation_and_government_support/1932/sponsored_projects_office_spo

Federal agencies are aware of the current challenges and we will share additional guidance as it becomes available.

• NOTICE OF RATE CHANGE: Note that the cost rate for reassigned times on external grant proposals has changed from $4,600 per reassigned time to 12% of base annual salary per reassigned time. This new policy was effective on 6/1/2018 and revised to comply and remain consistent with Federal regulations elucidated in the “Uniform Guidance” 2 CFR 200. This rate will be used for all new external grants: corporate, foundation and government. All proposals submitted prior to 6/1/2018 have been grandfathered such that they maintain the prior rate of $4,600 per release. As is standard practice for our office, all release time requests must be approved by the Provost.

• REMINDER ON OUTGOING FUNDING PROPOSALS: Please remember to inform the Sponsored Projects Office (Glen or Ben) of all your outgoing funding proposals. This includes those which are institutionally sponsored, or if they are for grants, fellowships, residencies, prizes or other sabbatical or research support that might come to you directly. This is a responsibility of faculty members according to the Faculty Handbook Chapter I, Sect. IV, Part A.1-3, and in Sponsored Project Policies in the Campus Policies Manual under “Approval and Submission of Proposals” (link to PDF download).

You are also required to lodge a copy of your proposal with the Sponsored Projects Office. This information assists in the preparation of College and community-wide publicity, and helps your colleagues learn of your scholarly work and have an opportunity to learn of its depth and breadth. It can also be can be highly useful for pre-tenure and tenure reviews, promotions, salary increases, awards, and conferral of named chairs.
Please help your colleagues celebrate your scholarly efforts and your successes!

FEATURED GRANT PROGRAM: 2021-2022 FULBRIGHT SCHOLAR PROGRAM

  - If I already had a Fulbright, can I get another one?
    - Restrictions regarding previous Fulbright experiences have been lifted by the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. The board reiterated its strong preference for Fulbright Scholar opportunities to be given to candidates who have not previously received a Fulbright Scholar grant, as stipulated in section 624.2 of the Fulbright Program Policies.

Do you have your ORCID iD?

Have you ever searched for abstracts of funded grants or journal articles by an author with a common name, like John Smith, and been frustrated by the need to refine your search to eliminate the abstracts/articles by a different John Smith? Or have you tried to find multiple works by an author who has changed his/her last name several times? Databases and repositories have a variety of tools to mitigate challenges associated with same names and name changes, but a service increasingly used both by publishers and granting agencies promises to make the process easier. This tool is called ORCID (pronounced, though not spelled, like the flower).

An ORCID identifier (iD) is a sixteen-character alphanumeric string that, like a social security number, uniquely identifies you as a researcher. Unlike a social security number, however, an ORCID iD is designed to be used publicly. Much like a grant award number identifies a specific project with a specific funder, the ORCID iD identifies scholarly work (for example, grant proposals/awards and publications) with a specific individual.

Why register for an ORCID iD?

Both funding agencies and publishers are increasingly using ORCID iDs to identify researchers. Currently, having an ORCID iD is optional for most agencies, but as more organizations rely on ORCID iDs as unique identifiers, it is likely to be required in the future. If you register now, you can list existing publications and/or grants in your ORCID record, thereby getting ahead of any future requirements.

Can someone else register me for an ORCID iD?

No. As noted in ORCIDs Terms and Conditions, “You may not obtain an ORCID ID and create an ORCID Record for anyone other than yourself.” (ORCID Terms and Conditions of Use, 2015).

How do I register for my ORCID iD?

You can register for your ORCID iD on this Webpage: orcid.org/register.

Special thanks to Katie Plum, Angelo State University’s Director of Sponsored Projects for allowing the above information to be used/revised.

Dear Colleague Letter: Research on Sexual Harassment and Other Forms of Harassment in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Contexts

FOR NSF PROPOSAL WRITERS!
There are new NSF requirements for PDFs submitted via Fastlane and Research.gov, however this is NOT stated clearly in the Proposal Application Guide (PAPPG). NSF now requires document to be saved in “PDF/A” format, which is ISO compliant prior to upload. To produce a PDF/A document in Adobe Pro, click: File > Save As > More Options > PDF/A.

“PDF/A is an ISO-standardized version of the Portable Document Format (PDF) specialized for use in the archiving and long-term preservation of electronic documents. PDF/A differs from PDF by prohibiting features unsuitable for long-term archiving, such as font linking (as opposed to font embedding) and encryption. The ISO requirements for PDF/A file viewers include color management guidelines, support for embedded fonts, and a user interface for reading embedded annotations.”

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FROM FINANCIAL OPERATIONS

- Ensuring that all awards and grants are duly recognized by the college and properly reflected in the financial records is important. All award funds or notifications of wire/ACH transactions should be sent to Stephen Moul in Financial Operations for proper identification and to coordinate deposit and recording within Banner. After identification, the Gift Recorder (Jen Acuna) will then enter the deposit in Banner to the fund restricted to that award and records them in the college’s Advancement’s records. The College Advancement and Financial Operations offices work together closely to make sure this process captures all college awards. If you receive an award, please be sure to contact Stephen Moul to assist you in ensuring that your funding is accounted for properly from start to finish.

- Cost Share Guidelines: If a proposal requires cost sharing, the commitment of institutional resources must be noted on the External Grant Notification/Clearance Form that is circulated among the senior officers of the college for approval. If the college receives the award that includes cost sharing in the approved budget, the college is obligated to record these costs in the financial records and these cost share expenses are subject to audit. Please be sure to discuss cost sharing with the Sponsored Projects Office and/or Financial Operations offices prior to submitting proposals.

- Every grant or award has a unique account number (called FOAPAL) to track activity specific to that award. These numbers are assigned by Financial Operations when award letters are received. Stephen Moul tracks activity in accounts and sends quarterly spreadsheets to Financial Managers for their information and review. As a Financial Manager, you have the ability to review real time expenditures via Banner Self-Service. Please contact Miriam McMechen to inquire about Self-Service training offerings and direct specific questions about finances on awards to Stephen.

- If you have recommendations about information that would be useful for managing your grants (additional analysis, open sessions, Banner training, one-on-one assistance, etc.), please contact Stephen Moul.
