Many schools offer achievement awards to their outstanding students. The Board of Directors of the Conference believes that more language students should be among those recognized; accordingly, it offers the Award For Excellence in Language Study, to be awarded nationally.

Schools which are Advisory Council Members of the Northeast Conference may submit nominations free of charge. Other institutions must enclose $10 for each award to cover the cost of printing, postage, and handling.

Any school wishing to recognize outstanding student achievement with the Award should complete a nomination form and return it to the Conference. Individual certificates will be sent to the school for presentation to the students.

Nominees must be graduating students (although they may be graduating from any level, e.g., elementary, junior high, college, etc.) they must be enrolled in the most advanced course of the language for which the Award is being made, and they must show evidence of interest in foreign language and international studies beyond work in the classroom.

Each school may devise its own selection process for each language for which an Award is made.

The Award may be presented at any time of year, but nominations must be received by the Conference at least four weeks prior to the award date to allow time for delivery of the certificates. The names of students receiving awards and their nominating schools will be published the following fall in the NECTFL Review.
